

VIKTOR

Writer/Director: Ann Prim

Producer: Jillian Nodland

DOP: Adrian Danciu

Runtime: 11:01

Aspect Ratio: DCP 4K 5.1, 2:39 scope

Language: English/Russian

Completion Date: January 2016

Tagline: The boy in the pink dress.

Log Line: Young Viktor escapes his parent's world with the help of his grandmother. She allows Viktor to discover who he truly might be.

Synopsis: An American-Russian family is torn apart by a secret. Their only son 'Viktor' grows increasingly close to his beloved Russian grandmother. Only grandmother 'Zoya' knows his secret and is ultimately the one who speaks his truth.

Cast: Charles Koehnen, Helen Chorolec, Tanya Jones, and Greg Berman

'VIKTOR' was written and directed by Ann Prim and released in January 2016. Ann is based in Saint Paul, Minnesota. She has worked in both experimental and narrative film for more than 10 years. Ann is a two-time Jerome Arts Foundation recipient and the prestigious McKnight Media Arts Fellowship.

Ann creates characters that dwell outside social norms and exist in the space between and in the process of becoming. Her stories reveal the strength needed to survive and thrive.

Ann Prim's films have screened in festivals worldwide.

WWW.KINOFILMKRAFT.COM

VIKTOR

